

Menstruation Matters

Every 21 days you arrive with that cunning smile

For at most, you stay just 7 days.

I can do without you, and the pain you bring.

It started when I was nine and I know you plan on leaving me before I am walking with a bent spine.

Sometimes you leave a stain, oh my gosh the shame!

I get angry and consider your purpose,

With a smile I remember for more than just a while;

God's design, because of this I was born, I must have been an asinine,

To think I don't need you.

A fruitful womb, eggs released by cycles.

Populations now bloom all because of god's plan; "my monthly cycle".
